General objectives of the Programme

- ✓ to contribute through lifelong learning to the development of the Community as an advanced knowledge society, with sustainable economic development, more and better jobs and greater social cohesion
- ✓ to foster interchange, cooperation and mobility between education and training systems within the Community so that they become a world quality reference

Quality in mobility

- The international mobility of individuals as a tool for the achievement of goals of the Lisbon strategy is gaining on importance on the European and national level. When considering mobility, the issue at stake is not only the increase in the quantity of individual mobility, but its quality. Improved quality of mobility brings increased impact on the individual and for the organization, as well as for the broader environment.
- European Quality Charter for Mobility (2006/961/EC) guidance document for transnational mobility, consisting of ten principles

10 points for quality in mobility

- information and guidance
- learning plan
- personalisation
- general preparation
- linguistic aspects
- logistical support
- mentoring
- recognition
- reintegration and evaluation
- commitments and responsibilities
